S2

Think big... think really big because our S2 Autumn/Winter collection is the biggest collection yet to date.

To accommodate for the warm months still ahead of us, S2 will be cutting a special Autumn collection comprising lightweight fabrics such as silk, cotton, sequin mesh and light wool stretch.

Our Winter collection will consist of heavier weight wool, jersey, silk and tulle.

Styles from both seasons are designed to be worn together, with contrasting textures and colours creating uniquely personalised looks.

Tobacco, Biro blue, acorn gold, ember orange, flint grey and, of course, black are the colours for this season's S2 collection.

Designer: Alistair Trung

S2 favourite, Alistair Trung from Sydney, is set to raise the bar for Australian winter fashion with his new collection. Fusing high end prêt-a-porter with artwear, Trung has designed a collection for all women. This AW, Alistair Trung is layered with silk, knits, wool and exquisite furs which have been produced in the same house as Prada's. Pure indulgence meets everyday wear, so don't be the only woman without her Trung!

Designer: Sadotna

Bold, dark, daring and black, SADOTNA is now available for the first season at S2. Each style oozes confidence and is particularly gallant for Australian design. AW includes a structured full length jacket with internal wiring at the base, Chaplin pure wool coat, oversized pocket skirts and pants, raw-edged frill shirts and frontal full length waistcoats. Because of SADOTNA's high quality design and finish their style is distinctly individual.

Jeweller: Helena Bugocki

S2/ Angove Street is pleased to present Helena Bugocki for the first time this season. Bugocki is a young Western Australian jeweller with a great passion for antique and vintage design. Bugocki's work displays an organic and minimalist look, playing with the shapes and iconography of everyday items. A range of pendants and earrings are available exclusively from S2 / Angove Street.

Designer: Andrew McDonald

After completing studies under John Lobb of London and Paul Harnden, Andrew McDonald established his Paddington workshop where he now creates individually handcrafted shoes.

Each style is a unique blend of classic simplicity with a contemporary quirk: European vintage style brogue shoes with leather wrap around laces; black leather ankle boots with spiralling vintage brass zips; and Cuban heeled ankle boots.

Don't miss out - these are lifetime friends!

A number of styles and sizes will arrive at S2 / Angove Street and S2 / Glyde Street in mid- March.

Designer: Lui Hon

Melbourne's LUI HON has produced an outstanding, international AW collection. Lui's K.I.S.S AW10 collection is raw and edgy in its design, yet rather refined in its overall look.

LUI HON's cleverly constructed finish is present throughout K.I.S.S., creating shapes and silhouettes in the silks, wools, leather and merino utilised. Lui's collection seems to draw from popular contemporary fashion whilst still incorporating Lui's signature style.

Style Profile: Sophie

Sophie has been with S2 for a little over four months. During this time, Sophie has developed strong relationships with customers through her friendly and easy to get along with personality. Sophie has a passion for yoga, ballet, theatre and is also an avid restaurateur. Sophie is also the biggest fan of her son, Quin (11), a young budding musician.

Sophie's admiration for style and attention to detail were matched when she began working with S2. She also finds inspiration from the environment and atmosphere around her, both in and out of store.

Sophie enjoys spending time with family and friends having picnics by the river, travelling down south and escaping to romantic getaways with her partner Nic.
