Don't be intimidated by fashion

Accessories give a unique edge

ACCORDING to Chrissie Catling of S2 fame, Perth women are very forward thinking and want individual outfits with a unique edge.

Women are intimidated by fashion despite having a real desire to experiment and create their own style.

Many women know exactly what they like and what their style is, they just need a little help pulling it together—selecting accessories and adding that individual flavour.

Chrissie has just shown her spring-summer 08/09 collection at the recent Styleaid showcase at Burswood to rave reviews.

The range is clean, bold and minimal, built on strong lines, beautiful fabrics and a colour palette of crisp white, seagull grey, acid green, blood red and black.

Her range of contemporary clothing is for women who exude individuality and confidence and with her ever-evolving collection that stands out in a crowd and her unique gallery space, this provides a dramatic, yet simple canvass for S2 the fashion label.
