Chrissie Catling
S2

Catling has been at the design helm of directional fashion label S2 since 2004. S2 is known for a monochromatic minimalism which is not dictated to by passing fads and trends. Recalling the conceptual design of the great 1980s Japanese designers, S2 explores draping, asymmetry and layering which allows room for movement, rather than constricting the body. The label is for women who are artistic, creative, and want something different from the mainstream. S2 was voted the standout show at the 2008 Perth Fashion Festival and continues to have a strong presence, this year hosting a solo show.
